

Maths long term overview

Year 4

| Each block =2 wks | Autumn 1                            | Autumn 2                | Spring 1                           | Spring 2                | Summer 1                            | Summer 2                         |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Block A               | Number- addition and subtraction    | Number and place value. | Number- addition and subtraction   | Number and place value. | Number- multiplication and division | Number and place value           |
| Block B               | Number- multiplication and division | Fractions               | Statistics/Measurement             | Fractions               | Measurement                         | Fractions                        |
| Block C               | Measurement                         | Geometry                | Number-multiplication and division | Geometry                | Statistics                          | Number- addition and subtraction |

7 strands from the maths curriculum.

18 blocks per year, plus 5 weeks extra for assessment / cross curricular.

Starters: Weekly-The big one times tables challenge, mental maths/mental arithmetic 3 remaining sessions 'teaching children to count mentally'.