

Win £500 of books for your school library by taking part in a unique community art project in association with Egmont Books and East Cliff Creatives

On Tuesday 19th January, Egmont Books will launch a series of home-schooling author events to help aid parents, schools and teachers currently delivering home learning to children across the UK.

These events also support and encourage participation in our Paper Beach project – a unique community art project, creating a giant artwork made up of individual contributions from children, authors, illustrators and hopefully, you too!

Submissions to the Paper Beach project from school children will automatically be entered into a competition to win £500 worth of Egmont books for their school. There are six prizes to be won; one per week for the duration of our six-week event programme.

Find out more, including the competition terms and conditions at www.eastcliffcreatives.com/paper-beach.

The Paper Beach Home Schooling Events:

Beginning on Tuesday 19th January, Egmont Books will upload a pre-recorded event each week that will feature;

- An introduction by series host, children's author & presenter Gareth P Jones
- A reading or drawalong from an Egmont author or illustrator
- A home schooling task each week - focused around writing, drawing, imagination and creativity
- Resources to help tailor each week's educational task to the age and stage of your child
- Instructions on how to join in our Paper Beach art project
- A weekly update on the project's progress

Each weekly video will be posted on <https://www.youtube.com/user/EgmontVideos> and will also be posted on Egmont's Facebook channels and on www.eastcliffcreatives.com/paper-beach

How can you get involved?

Please share these details with parents, friends, other schools and fellow teachers and encourage participants to log on to the project website; www.eastcliffcreatives.com/paper-beach and to tune into the home schooling events to get involved.

Details of how to submit your own contribution to the Paper Beach artwork are available on that website and will also be clearly detailed in a child-friendly way within each of the home-schooling author events outlined above.
