Optional challenge (vocabulary task)

If you are confident with our spelling rule this week, you are going to continue to create your vocabulary book. In this book, you will write down interesting word choices for words that we use all the time. How many will you find?

This week I would like you to focus on colour. You can either choose one colour to concentrate on or you can choose a range. Can you describe your colour(s) in another way?

Bring in your work so we can share your new vocabulary with the rest of the class.
