

School Newsletter

Dear parents,

What a lovely week we have had with all the gorgeous sunshine. The children have enjoyed the opportunity to play and learn outside.

On that note, please remember to send them into school with a sun hat and a water bottle. Summer uniform is allowed from now on.

Enjoy the weather this weekend!.

Mr Jackson

Important - Packed lunch reminder

A reminder to all parents as we have upcoming trips being arranged and sporting competitions happening during the school day, and more children choosing packed lunches in the warmer weather, all packed lunches must be NUT FREE, we have a child at school that is severely allergic to SESAME, ALL NUTS and PINE NUTS we ask that you are thorough in checking all ingredients on packets. If this child were to come in contact with these allergens either on their SKIN or INGESTS them it is extremely likely they will have a severe anaphylactic reaction.

The list includes foods such as

Sesame: Houmous, Tahini, breads, crackers with sesame seeds or sesame oil

Peanuts and Tree nuts: Cereals, cakes, chocolates, energy bars, nut butters, nutella, nut milks

Pine Nuts: Pesto, pre-packaged pizza, pasta, pies, salads

Fundraising Update

The school raised a fantastic £474.89 for Comic Relief Red Nose Day last Friday, this is a combined total of selling red noses in school and the cake donations for the Junior and Infant site cake stalls. Thank you to everyone.

We can also provide an update on the current Ukraine fundraising projects, sponsor money/donations are still being collected. Funds we raise for the Ukraine will be donated to Save the Children <https://www.savethechildren.org/us/where-we-work/ukraine>

- Florence in Year 4 has made £130 selling the loom bands for the Ukraine, thank you Florence.
- Hot chocolate sales at the Infant and Junior site raised a combined £163.77
- Sponsored Silence money, total so far £1017.50 (please continue to pay the sponsor money via the School Gateway App or cash to the school office if easier)
